

Membership Fees for NAFSAN Members

Membership and Affiliation Fees - NAFSAN's Constitution, Section 3.3.

- 3.3.1. Each member must pay an annual membership fee in an amount and manner determined by the Board. Different fees may be set for Individual Members and different categories of Institutional Members and should be affordable.
- 3.3.2. In appropriate cases, the Board may grant an exemption, reduction or deferral of payment of membership fees.
- 3.3.3. Each Institutional Supporter must pay an affiliation fee determined by the Board.
- 3.3.4. Membership or affiliation fees already paid by a Member or Supporter will not be reimbursed upon cessation of membership.

The following fee structure has been approved by the NAFSAN Board in November 2021 and was last updated in September 2024 and are valid as from the 2022/23 financial year.

For any membership commencing in or before April, the full annual membership fee applies, while for any membership commencing in or after the month of May, a pro-rata fee will be applicable. Membership fees are always due on or before the 1st of April of each year, which is a requirement for active membership status until 31st March of the following year. The NAFSAN Secretariat keeps record of membership fees being up-to date and will communicate with all members accordingly.

If your organization wishes to request for a reduction or exemption by the NAFSAN Board, kindly provide reasons for such a request in writing to the NAFSAN Secretariat: members@nafsan.org
